

LIZ HUGHES

After four years as a parent governor at Whitworth Community High School, I have a strong commitment to supporting the School, helping to elicit the best outcomes for all students, by both challenging and supporting the leadership, which is a governor's role. I have considerable training in, and experience of supporting parents of students with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities.