

Emma Loynd

I worked in Business Travel for many years, including two years in Spain, after studying Business, Finance and Languages.

I then retrained in Health and Social Care and worked with vulnerable adults.

Nine years ago I moved into education in a Primary School setting. I am involved in teaching Spanish to Years 3-6.

I have been a School Governor for the last five years.