Your teacher has given you your unique username and password for Educake.

You can find the website by putting 'Educake' into a search engine or directly at <https://www.educake.co.uk/>

You have been set a quiz by your science teacher, it covers topics that you have studied over the year.

You should look up the topics to help you if you are not sure about the questions.

You can try the test again to improve your score.
You must repeat the quiz if you got less than 80%.
Do not attempt the quiz more than 3 times.

My percentage score.
After the first attempt
After the second attempt
After the third attempt

To help me answer the questions I used the following.
